GAIN REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

Flinders Work Integrated Learning (WIL) enables you to gain work experience while you study. You'll have the opportunity to gain real-world experience through placements, practicums, field studies, and simulated workplace settings and assessment activities. Flinders aims to provide each and every student with access to a WIL opportunity during their studies.

THINK BIG. MAKE AN IMPACT. DESIGN YOUR FUTURE.

Careers are evolving and the workplace of the future will look very different from today. Powered by Flinders' New Venture Institute, our suite of innovation and enterprise electives and courses will help you to develop the 'personal enterprise skills' that employers are looking for, and equip you with the ability to adapt to whatever life throws at you, personally and professionally. No matter what you choose to study at Flinders, you can embed an innovation and enterprise elective into your degree.

TAKE YOUR STUDIES OVERSEAS

Why wait until you graduate to explore the world? Flinders' Learn Without Borders could see you studying overseas, gaining a unique perspective and immersing yourself in a different culture, language and lifestyle.

"My exchange was honestly one of the most amazing and rewarding six months of my life. The friends I made, the things I saw and experienced will stick with me for the rest of my life."

Combined degrees

Combining your degree with a qualification in another discipline will help you develop specialised abilities to stand out from the pack. Studying a combined degree at Flinders is the key to enhancing your career opportunities.

Example degree combinations

Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice/Bachelor of International Relations and Political Science

SATAC code: 244112

A laws and legal practice degree from Flinders satisfies the academic and practical requirements to practise law in South Australia. Combining these studies with a Bachelor of International Relations and Political Science opens the door to a multitude of careers in international organisations, aid and human rights, government, transnational crime, terrorism, and non-government organisations.

Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice/Bachelor of Criminology

SATAC code: 244112

By combining studies in laws and legal practice with criminology, you will develop the professional legal skills to prepare you for a job in the legal profession and gain an understanding of how justice and society influence each other. The combination prepares you for a broad range of careers in law but also government, leadership and educational settings.

Other combined degree options available in:

- Accounting
- Arts
- Behavioural Science (Psychology)
- Business
- Criminology
- Finance
- International Relations & Political Science
- Languages
- Law & Society
- Science.

“What makes Flinders special is the people. I have a great support network of friends. We truly do support each other in whatever we do, and the support from lecturers is amazing. You can undertake a law degree anywhere, but it’s the people at Flinders that get you through to the end.”

Ashley Ramachandran,
Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice

GET MORE OUT OF YOUR STUDY

Combined degrees

Combining your degree with a qualification in another discipline will give you more expertise and expand your career prospects. Studying a combined degree at Flinders will help you stand out from the crowd.

A combined degree is a combination of two Flinders bachelor degrees. As a combined degree graduate you will have two qualifications in just one to one-and-a-half years of extra study.

Our combined degree programs are designed to enhance your educational, academic and professional qualifications while minimising the cost and length of your studies. Flinders’ combined degrees allow you to undertake in-depth study in exciting combinations that aren’t usually available in single degrees.
